Tourist Development Tax Registration for an Individual/ Non-Business

Our mission is to serve the public with integrity, innovation, fiscal responsibility, and respect.

The Alachua County Tourist Development Tax applies to anyone who owns, operates, or is an agent of transient property. If this tax applies to you and you are an individual (not operating a business), please complete all applicable information on this form and submit by either e-mail, regular mail, fax, or deliver in-person to any of our three locations. For exemption information please visit our website at: AlachuaCollector.com.

Once you submit this application and receive your account number, you may file and pay this monthly tax electronically through TouristExpress™ by visiting: <https://alachua.county-taxes.com/tourist>. The tax must be filed and paid by the 20th of the following month to avoid penalties. Those who file timely through TouristExpress™ will be granted a monthly collection allowance up to $30.

NOTE: Payments must be made and filed monthly. Even if you do not have any rental collection, you must still file a zero return.
