

June 11, 2019

RENTAL HOST
1111 SAMPLE ROAD
GAINESVILLE, FL 32222

RE: Alachua County Tourist Development Tax

Dear Rental Host:

We have been informed you are renting your home at 1111 SAMPLE ROAD GAINESVILLE, FL 32222, USA on a short-term basis. Please note, in Alachua County short-term rentals are subject to the Tourist Development Tax, per Florida Statute 125.0104. The Tourist Development tax is a 5% tax in addition to the 7% Sales tax, that you must collect and remit.

Also, please understand that Alachua County does not have any type of agreement with the online platforms (AirBnB, VRBO, Homeaway etc.) for remittance of the Tourist Development Tax. The homeowner is responsible for remitting the tax.

Complying is simple.

Please visit our website at <https://www.alachuacollector.com/tourist-development-2019/> to apply for a new Alachua County Tourist Development Account within 10 days of receipt of this letter. This account will enable you to conveniently remit your Tourist Development Taxes electronically. If you do not have access to the internet, please fill out the enclosed application and return it in the envelope provided.

If you have already registered with our office, please disregard this notice.

For questions or assistance, please visit our website at www.AlachuaCollector.com or contact the Tax Operations Department at 352-264-6968.

Sincerely,

Lee Tussinger, CFCA
Tax Operations